

THE TALENTS
MATTHEW 25:14-30

1. This parable is a part of Jesus' teachings on how to be _____ for His coming, a day of which we do not know the _____. See Matthew 24:36-37, 42, 44, & 25:13.

2. This parable pictures us as being _____ of God's talents. Even one talent had much _____.

3. Scriptures like James 1:17-18, Romans 12:3-8, I Corinthians 12:14-18, & I Corinthians 10:31-33 strongly imply that our talents include all of _____ and _____ God has made us.

4. The important factor is not how we compare with others but do we use to God's glory what He has _____ to us.

5. A comparison of the description of the rewards in the parable with those in Revelation 21:24-26 should broaden our view of what our _____ may be like.
